

Civil Senior Project Engineer

Bursich Associates, Inc. is seeking an experienced civil project engineer for a position in our Pottstown office. The position requires a BS in Civil Engineering or related field, and minimum of eight years experience in subdivision and land development projects. P.E., R.L.S., or other professional certification preferred.

Position summary is as follows:

- Holds responsibility for proficient designs in various areas of site planning, engineering, and landscape architecture, including, but not limited to: site evaluation, sketch and yield plan preparation, site layout, horizontal and vertical alignment for roadways, grading, stormwater management and BMP's, utilities, soil erosion control, HEC-RAS, construction detailing, landscaping, lighting, permitting, and the preparation of calculations, reports, and drawings;
- Reviews applicable ordinances and other regulations to identify zoning, layout, and design requirements; prepares plans in conformance with applicable requirements;
- Works closely with a team of project engineers, project designers and CADD technicians assigned to projects; interacts with clients, architects, traffic engineers, attorneys, contractors, and other professionals as required;
- Attends day or evening meetings in support of zoning, land development, and permitting processes, as required;
- Possesses excellent verbal and written communication skills